

Monika Wisberger

Monika is a native of Germany. She grew up with a passion for Design and Painting. She came to the United States in 1988 where she met and married her husband in 1990. She moved to Lake Arrowhead in 1999 and used her free time to become involved with glass painting and home decor. She eventually became involved with canvas painting with acrylics and was self taught early on. To better understand color schemes, she took art lessons from Helga Batman, and became involved with oil painting which she most enjoys. Her paintings are multi faceted, involving landscapes, sea and water scapes, as well as still life and animals. She is currently widening her skills with lessons in painting with water colors.

Monika has shown her works at the local mountain art festivals, as well as art shows in San Bernardino and Riverside. She is a member of "Plein Air Artists of Riverside (PARR), Riverside Art Museum (RAM), and is a current member of the Mountain Artists Network (Man).

She recently moved to San Juan Capistrano, where she continues her paintings, and has become a member of the San Clemente Art Association.

Monika's motto: "Colors are where the brain and universe come together as one".
